2024–2025 Series — Welcome!

Dear Musical Friends,

We at Del Valle Fine Arts are excited to announce a stunning season lineup of both new and favorite returning musical stars!

We are also pleased to announce our first ever Summer Winery Event, on August 23 at Concannon Winery. Stay posted for updates on this special occasion by joining our email list on our website: www.delvallefinearts.org.

Our school youth outreach programs continue to engage students and pull in audiences to our concert, which are free for youth.

Please consider becoming a donor, sponsoring one of our artists, supporting our youth outreach!

Share your excitement; share with a friend!!

Del Valle Fine Arts 2024–2025 Concert Series – Bringing Fine Classical Music to the Tri-Valley

Aznavoorian Duo cello & piano

Sisters Ani (cello) and Marta (piano) have been performing in public together since they were children and were first prize winners of the Illinois Bell Young Performers Competition. Winners of the National Foundation for the Arts Award, they were also named Presidential Scholars in the Arts. Ani won first prize in the Concerto Competition at Juilliard and is on the music faculty of the University of Illinois. Marta, a Steinway Artist, has been nominated for a Grammy Award; her many accolades include first prize in the Stravinsky International Competition.

True artists showing great sensitivity and great virtuosity. — Los Angeles Times

Jon Nakamatsu piano

Famed pianist Jon Nakamatsu, gold medalist of the 1997 Van Cliburn International Piano Competition, has developed a multi-faceted career that encompasses recording, education, arts administration, and public speaking in addition to his vast concert schedule. A great supporter of Del Valle Fine Arts, this performance will mark his fifth appearance for us.

Nakamatsu's performance shone with great eloquence and astonishing brilliance. — San Francisco Classical Voice

November 16, 2024, 7:30 p.m.

Euclid String Quartet strings

We welcome back this highly regarded string quartet, which last appeared for us in 2014. Now celebrating its 27th season, this ensemble has earned many notable awards, most recently a top prize at the Osaka International Chamber Music Competition. Since 2007, they have been the resident string quartet at Indiana University.

... the members of the Euclid String Quartet hurl themselves into the fray with alacrity, relishing the music's invention with contagious wit and virtuosity. — The Strad

February 8, 2025, 7:30 p.m.

Curtis on Tour guitar, violin, viola, cello quartet

“Curtis on Tour,” an initiative of the famed Curtis Institute of Music, promotes touring ensembles uniting extraordinary emerging artists in performance with celebrated alumni and faculty. This concert will include two Grammy Award winners: guitarist Jason Vieaux, a DVFA favorite, and violist Roberto Díaz, CEO and president of the Curtis Institute and former principal viola of the Philadelphia Orchestra.

Díaz's technical mastery was astounding... — Washington Classical Review

[Vieaux is] among the elite of today's classical guitarists. — Gramophone

The Moanin' Frogs saxophone sextet

Conservatory trained and entertainment minded, The Moanin' Frogs offer an electrifying approach to chamber music. First prize winners of the 2018 M-Prize Chamber Arts Competition, this unique ensemble features all six saxophones from soprano to bass; their dynamic and technically precise performances of classical, ragtime, jazz, and pop delight fans across the world.

The best concert I ever attended... People were cheering. — Trinity Concert Series Board Member
